

Biography	Thomas Christoffersen began his collaboration with Bjarke Ingels in 2001. He has selected experience on every notable BIG project including the multi-award winning VM Houses and the 8 House, which was awarded the 2012 AIA National Honor Award for Architecture. Thomas currently oversees the detail design and construction of the 750-unit residential West 57th building in Manhattan which will strive for LEED Gold Certification. His other notable projects include the Vancouver House tower in Vancouver, the Telus Sky in Calgary, the Kimball Art Center, and the Smithsonian Institution Campus Masterplan in DC.
